Hi Mark,

How are you doing? It's six o'clock in the evening and I'm writing this email on our computer at home. We've got a new kitten. He's called Fluffy and he's playing with a ball!

Mum and my sister, Ella, are out. Ella's riding her new bike. Mum is walking our dog Paddy in Richmond Park. We often go there at weekends. Paddy loves it. Why? Because it's got deer and rabbits in it and hundreds of trees!

Rosie is in the sitting room with a friend. They aren't doing their homework, they're watching videos! Dad is cooking dinner. He's making pasta and meatballs. He always makes that.

What are you doing? How's school? My new school is OK but I'm missing Bristol a bit.

Write back soon.

Cheers,
Jack
